

4. Luke 10:5-7 provides a rubric of knowing when someone is ready to hear more about the Kingdom of God. These “persons of peace” (p. 140, paragraph 3) are the ones who “seem to be open to your good will and peace...who seem to be open to talking with you.” Any names come to mind? What limits our interactions?

5. On page 156, the author tells the importance of gathering with missionary friends to reconnect and tell our “God-stories.” There, we are given five questions that can serve as a conversation starter. What are they? Any thoughts on those five questions as you reflect over last week?

6. On page 157, paragraph 2, the author asserts “_____ stories reinforce_____ values, which reinforce _____practices, which produce more _____ stories.” Agree?

HOMEWORK: Review the book and come prepared to discuss what we should do here at Our Lutheran Church!