Internal Revenue Service: Employee vs. Independent Contractor
www.irs.gov and search "Independent Contractor (Self-Employed) or Employee?"

People offer their services to the general public are generally independent contractors. However, whether these people are independent contractors or employees depends on the facts in each case. The general rule is that an individual is an independent contractor if the payer has the right to control or direct only the result of the work and not what will be done and how it will be done. The earnings of a person who is working as an independent contractor are subject to Self-Employment Tax.

Frank Abagnale Financial security consultant 800.237.7443

Frank W. Abagnale is one of the world's most respected authorities on the subjects of forgery, embezzlement, and secure documents. For over 35 years he has lectured and consulted hundreds of financial institutions, corporations, and government agencies around the world.

Mr. Abagnale believes that punishment for fraud and recovery of stolen funds are so rare, prevention is the only viable course of action. I recommend reading the book Safe and Secure-the Alban Guide to Protecting your Congregation (Chapter 1 Finances available at the Treasurer's Workshop)
