

Rebuilding my office: Organizational lessons from Nehemiah

Bulletin blurbs

Sunday, November 19

MEANING and NEEDING - Have you been meaning and needing to become more organized, but are having trouble knowing where to start? Have you previously tried, but sensed it was a losing battle? Join presenter Maryann Mori on Saturday, January 20 at the district office in Fort Dodge for a one-day workshop, "Rebuilding my Office: Organizational Lessons from Nehemiah." Visit the district website (www.iowadistrictwest.org) for details and to register. You can also contact Jill Davis at the district office (515-576-7666) with questions.

Sunday, November 26

CONQUER CLUTTER – Are you looking for some biblical truths to help yourself or others in your midst who struggle with disorganization? Join presenter Maryann Mori for Rebuilding my Office: Organizational Lessons from Nehemiah. This one-day workshop will feature a mix of Bible study, self-examination, and practical tips to get you on track to an organized, functional, and God-honoring office space. Register now on the district website (www.iowadistrictwest.org) to attend on January 20 at the district office in Fort Dodge from 9:30am – 3:30pm. Contact Jill Davis at the district office (515-576-7666) with questions.

Sunday, December 3

On Saturday, January 20 (9:30am-3:30pm) the district office will host a Rebuilding my Office: Organizational Lessons from Nehemiah workshop featuring presenter and Library Consultant, Maryann Mori. Maryann is a member of Messiah, Johnston and as a consultant with the State Library of Iowa, she has helped many librarians with space use and organizational aspects. She will bring her expertise to us in a one-day workshop featuring a mix of Bible study, self-examination, and practical tips to get you on track to an organized, functional, and God honoring office space. Visit the district website (www.iowadistrictwest.org) to register and for more details. Contact Jill Davis at the district office (515-576-7666) with questions.

Sunday, December 10

If you would like to:

Understand why God cares about our office space * Discover the possible reason for disorganization * Define a functional office * Learn practical tips for becoming more organized * Apply biblical truths to all areas of life – including office maintenance...

plan to attend the one-day workshop, Rebuilding my Office: Organizational Lessons from Nehemiah on Saturday, January 20 at the district office in Fort Dodge from 9:30am-3:30pm with presenter Maryann Mori. Register on the district website at www.iowadistrictwest.org. Contact Jill Davis at the district office (515-576-7666) with questions.

Sunday, December 17

Mark your calendar and register to attend the Rebuilding my Office: Organizational Lessons from Nehemiah workshop taking place on Saturday, January 20 at the district office in Fort Dodge from 9:30am-3:30pm with presenter Maryann Mori. Register on the district website at www.iowadistrictwest.org. Contact Jill Davis at the district office (515-576-7666) with questions.

Sunday, December 24

Rebuilding my Office: Organizational Lessons from Nehemiah is a one-day workshop that will combine Bible study, self-examination, and practical tips to get you on track to an organized, functional, and God-honoring office space. Visit the district website (www.iowadistrictwest.org) for more information and to register to attend on Saturday, January 20 from 9:30am – 3:30pm at the district office in Fort Dodge. Contact Jill Davis (515-576-7666) at the district office with questions.

Sunday, December 31

Tomorrow starts a New Year and what a better time to get on track with an organized, functional, and God-honoring office space. Join us on Saturday, January 20 at the district office in Fort Dodge from 9:30am-3:30pm for a one-day workshop dedicated to practical tips in “Rebuilding my Office: Organizational Lessons from Nehemiah.” Visit the district website (www.iowadistrictwest.org) for more information and to register. Contact Jill Davis at the district office (515-576-7666) with questions.

Sunday, January 7

Do you waste time searching for files and important items that you know you’ve saved (somewhere)? Bring your Bible, notebook & pen and join presenter Maryann Mori on Saturday, January 20 at the district office for a one-day workshop, “Rebuilding my Office: Organizational Lessons from Nehemiah.” Using examples of Nehemiah, the group will learn how to “rebuild” four areas of a functional office. Go to the district website (www.iowadistrictwest.org) for more information and to register. Contact Jill Davis in the district office (515-576-7666) with questions.

Sunday, January 14

FINAL CALL for registrations to attend the “Rebuilding my Office: Organizational Lessons from Nehemiah” workshop. Register on the district website at www.iowadistrictwest.org and learn how to “rebuild” four areas of a functional office. The deadline to register is tomorrow, Monday January 15. Contact Jill Davis at the district office (515-576-7666) with questions or for additional information.

Organizational Workshop

Using the examples of Nehemiah, this workshop will help participants learn how to “rebuild” four areas of a functional office.

Where: District Office (409 Kenyon Rd., Fort Dodge)

When: Saturday, January 20, 2024 (9:30am – 3:30pm)

Learning objectives:

- Understand why God does care about our office space;
- Discover the possible reason for disorganization;
- Define a functional office;
- Learn practical tips for becoming better organized;
- Apply biblical truths to all areas of life – including office maintenance.

Register online at www.iowadistrictwest.org. Contact Jill Davis at the district office with questions (515-576-7666).

Presenter: Maryann Mori, a member of Messiah, Johnston and a library consultant with the State Library of Iowa says, “Librarians are in the business of organization!” Maryann has helped many librarians with space use and organizational aspects and has also guided her somewhat messy husband toward better organizational skills.

Organizational Workshop

Using the examples of Nehemiah, this workshop will help participants learn how to “rebuild” four areas of a functional office.

Where: District Office (409 Kenyon Rd., Fort Dodge)

When: Saturday, January 20, 2024 (9:30am – 3:30pm)

Learning objectives:

- Understand why God does care about our office space;
- Discover the possible reason for disorganization;
- Define a functional office;
- Learn practical tips for becoming better organized;
- Apply biblical truths to all areas of life – including office maintenance.

Register online at www.iowadistrictwest.org. Contact Jill Davis at the district office with questions (515-576-7666).

Presenter: Maryann Mori, a member of Messiah, Johnston and a library consultant with the State Library of Iowa says, “Librarians are in the business of organization!” Maryann has helped many librarians with space use and organizational aspects and has also guided her somewhat messy husband toward better organizational skills.