OUR MISSIONARY IN ANKENY, IA

Project #41312-1

.Pastor Aaron Hannemann comes from a long line of shepherds. His great great grandpa Heinrich Hannmann was a pastor (shepherd of souls) at the turn of the last century in southern Minnesota and and South Dakota. His great grandpa, Walter, was a farmer (shepherd of sheep) and elder at his church in South Dakota for 50 years. His grandpa, Norman, was a pastor who served many congregations, one of which was Immanuel Lutheran in Lidderdale, IA in the 1950's . His father, Mark, is currently serving as a pastor in Omaha, NE. Rev. Aaron Hannemann completed his pre-seminary studies at Concordia University in Seward, NE in 2011 and received his Masters of Divinity from Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, MO, in 2015. He married Kaala (Geyer) in 2012 and has two children: Jonah, age 2, and Samuel, age 6 months.

Rev. Hannemann was called through St. Paul Lutheran Church, Ankeny, IA, which happens to be the third fastest growing city in the U.S. In order to better reach the lost with the good news of Jesus, St. Paul has called Rev. Hannemann to plant a church in this community. This new mission start is called The Gate Lutheran Church.

We ask for your prayers for this family as they build relationships with their fellow disciples at St. Paul and The Gate and those disconnected from the body of Christ in their community. Pray that God would open doors into the community for Rev. Hannemann and The Gate and that He would prepare the hearts of many to receive Jesus as their Lord and Savior. Pray also that the Lord would bless this work and that relationships with area congregations and congregations around the Iowa District West would grow and flourish as we partner together to further God's kingdom.
